

That is your hat.
It is on the table.

These are your hats.
They are on the table.

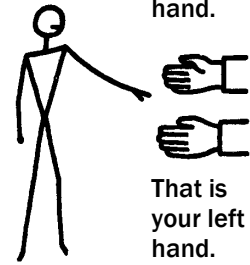

These are my hands.

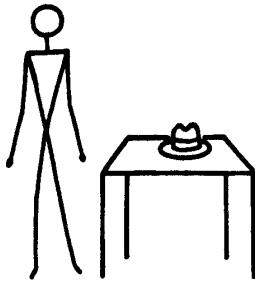

Those are your hands.

That is your right hand.

His hat is on the table.

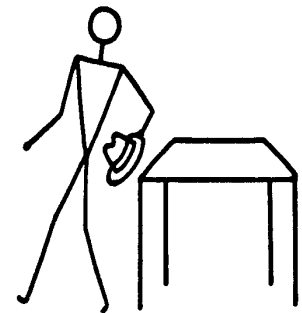

He will take his hat off
the table.

He is taking it off the table.

He took it off the table.

He will put his hat on his head.

He is putting his hat on
his head.

He put his hat on his
head.
It is on his head.

It was on the table.
It is on his head.

He will take his hat off
his head.

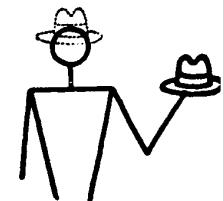

He is taking his hat off
his head.

His hat is in his hand.
It was on his head.

He took his hat off.

It is in his hand.

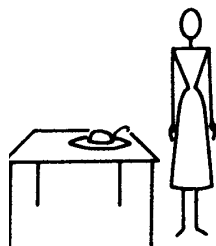

1. He _____ his hat on.

2. He is _____ his hat off.

3. It _____ on his head.

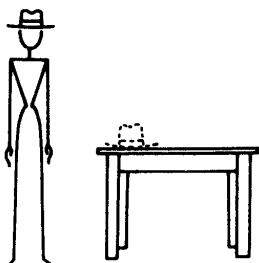

4. Her hat is _____ the table.

5. _____ is on the table.

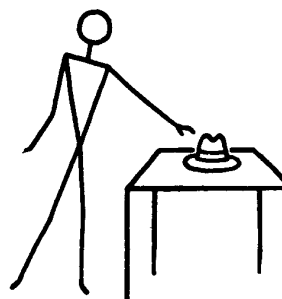

6. She _____ her hat on.

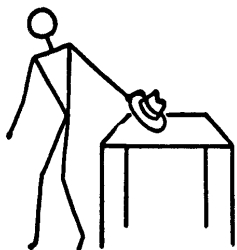

7. He _____ his hat off the table.

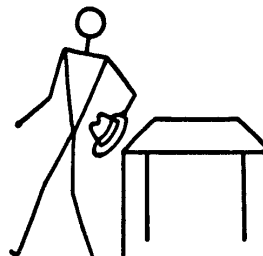

8. It _____ on his head.

9. He _____ his hat off the table.

10. He _____ his hat off the table.

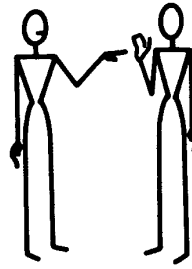

11. He _____ his hat off the table.

will put	is putting	is	took	taking	It
will take	is taking	took	is	on

1. This is (his, her, my) hat.

2. This is his (hat, head, hand).

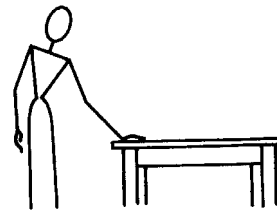

3. (Her, His, Its) hat is on her head.

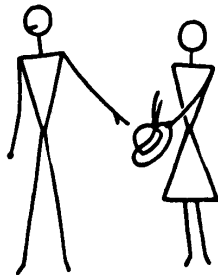

4. His hat is (in, my , on) his hand.

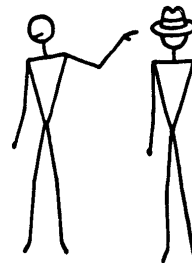

5. His hand is on his (finger, head, thumb).

6. His hand is (in, here , on) the table.

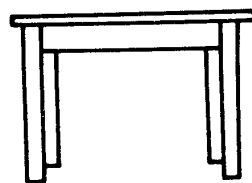

7. Her hat is in (its, her, his) hand.

8. His hat is (in, on, its) head.

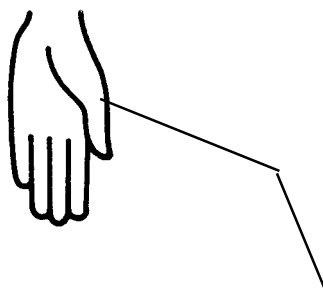

1. This is a _____

2. This is a _____

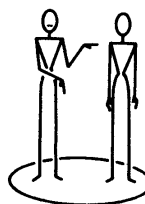

3. This is a _____

4. This is a _____

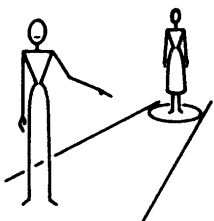

5. These are the _____

6. This _____ is here.

7. He _____ here.

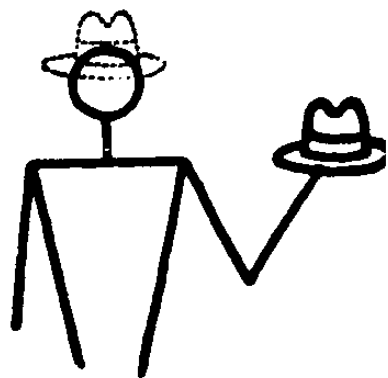

8. That woman is _____

9. _____ is there.

10 This is a (hat, head, hand).

He took his hat off.

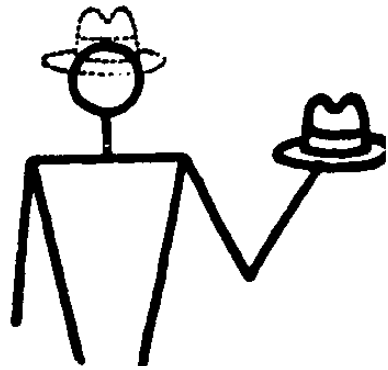

It is in his hand.

will

is put

will

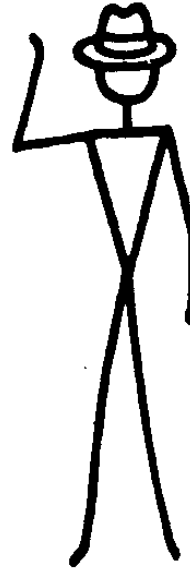

is

put

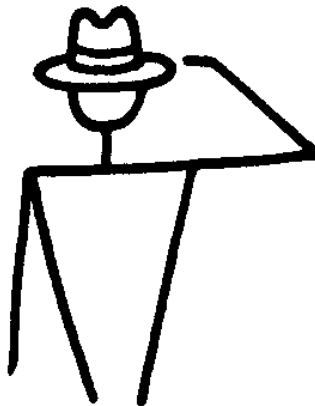

He is putting his hat on his head.

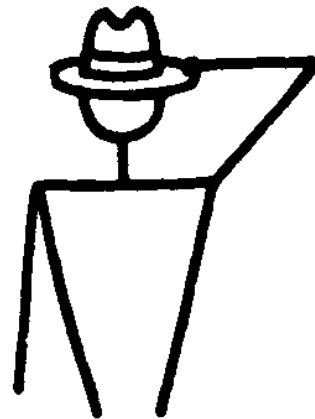

He put his hat on his head.
He put it on.

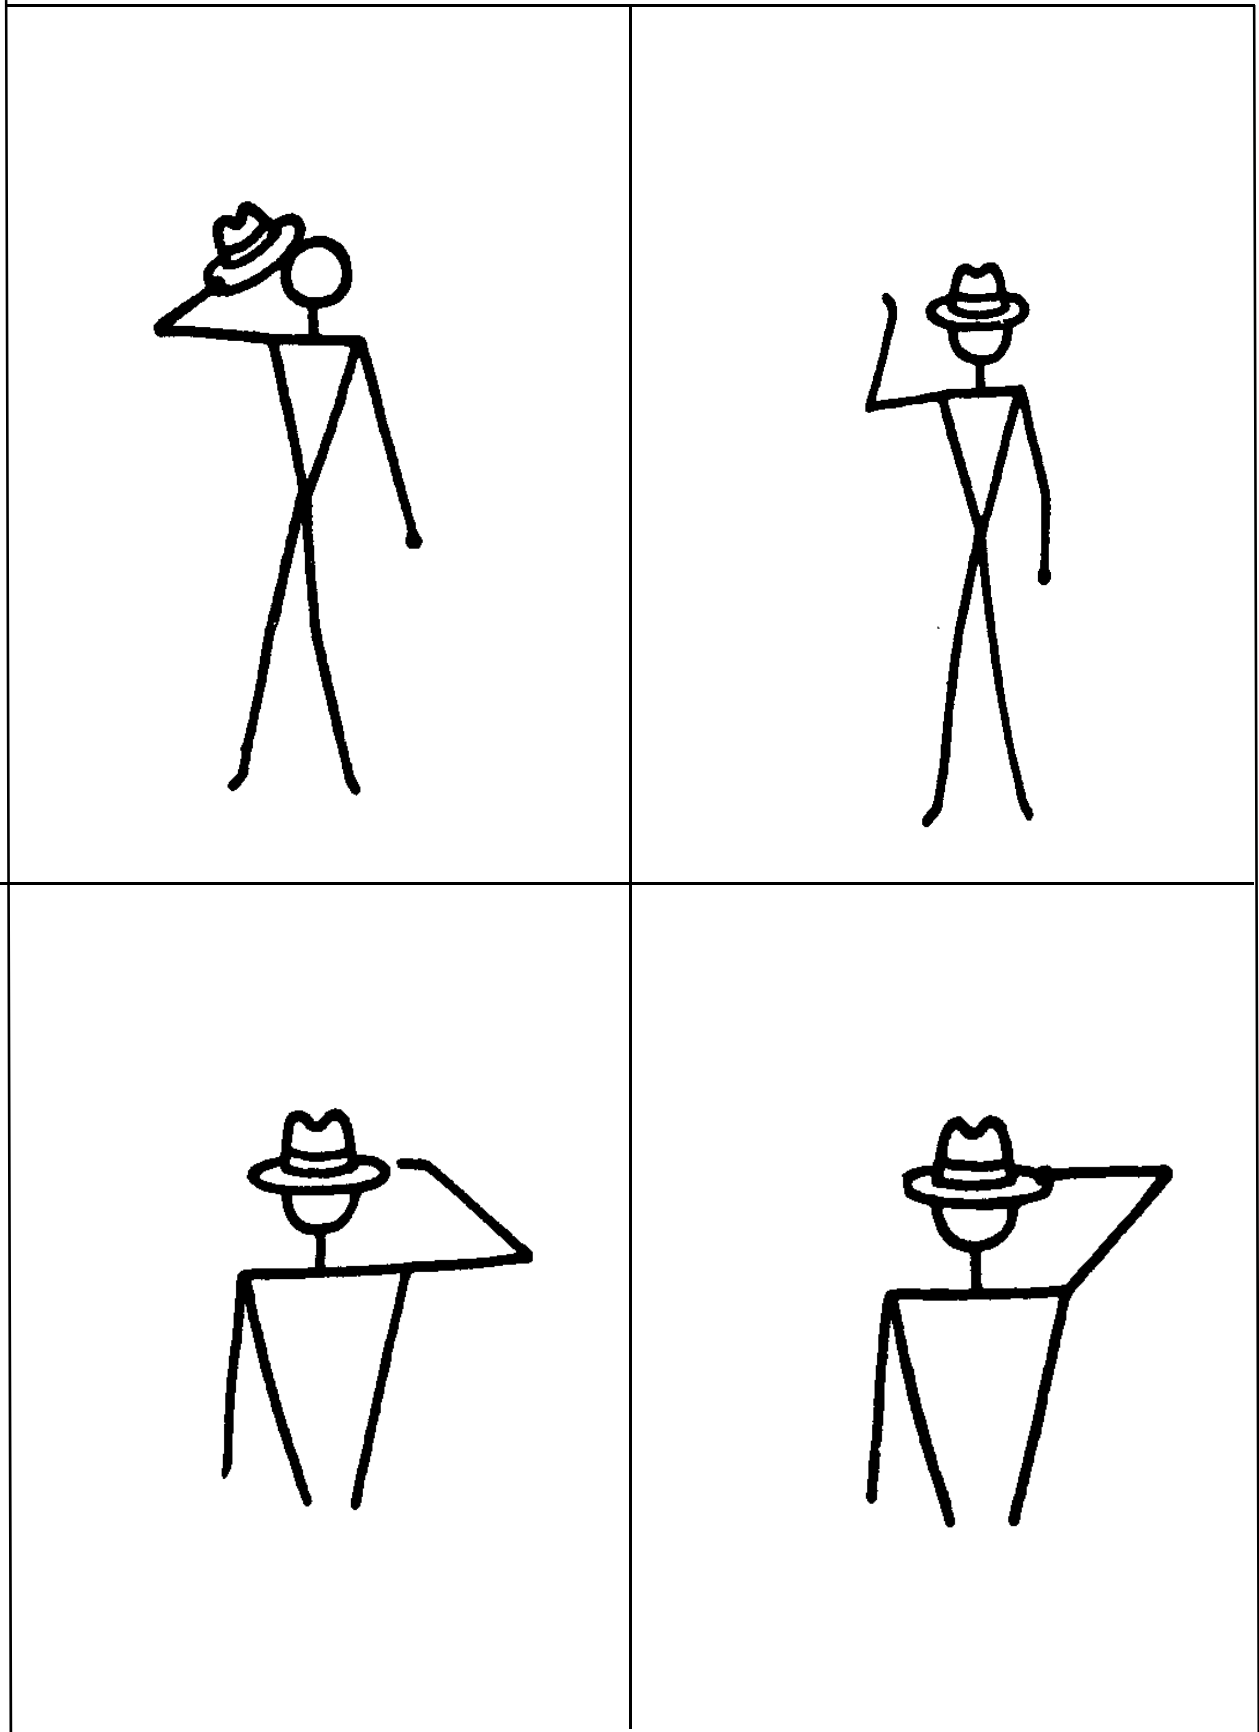

He will take his hat off his head.

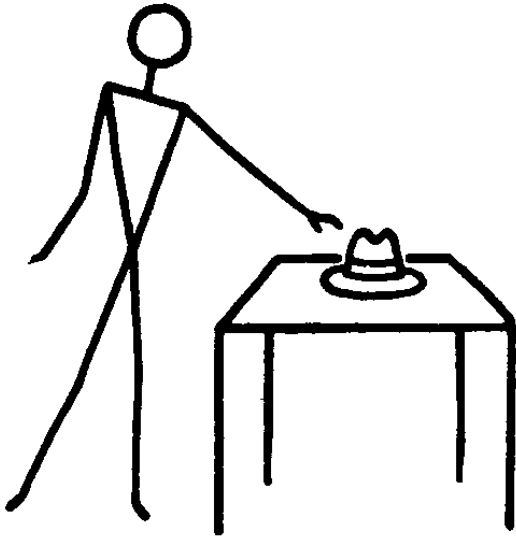

He is taking his hat off his head.

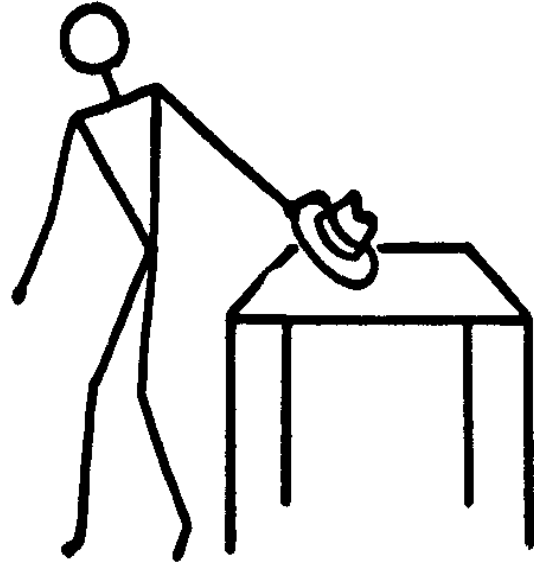

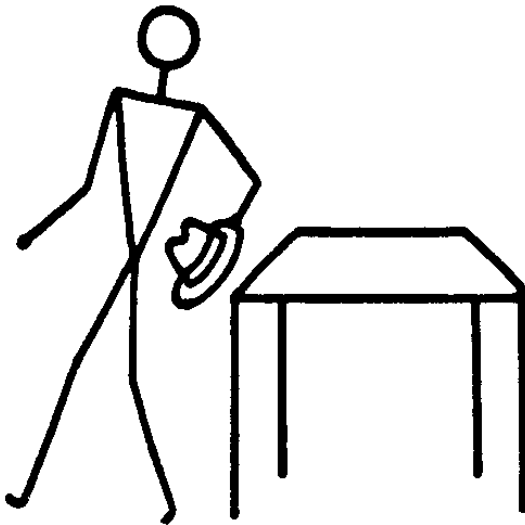

He will take his hat off the table.

He is taking it off the table.

He took it off the table.

He will put his hat on his head.

