

Ask a Missionary: Time-Tested Answers From Those Who've Been There

If you're exploring doing something extraordinary for the glory of God among the nations, the book Ask A Missionary brings clarity and answers for a journey into missions. Because they've been there, over one hundred missionaries including Elisabeth Elliot, George Verwer, Phyllis Kilbourn, Jack Voelkel and Bill Stearns share their insightful wisdom and practical advice on everything from making the decision to go, to stepping into a new life once on the field and everything in between.

- How can I know if God is leading me to become a missionary?
- How do I select a mission organization?
- What type of academic or practical training should I consider?
- How will I be funded?
- How do singles deal with loneliness and isolation overseas?
- What about the children if we are overseas?

For over ten years, John McVay, General Editor of this book, moderated Ask a Missionary discussions online and at conferences such as Urbana, Advancing Churches in Missions Commitment, Global Missions Health, and The Journey Deepens

For online discount and a look inside the book visit

Ministries and organizations may receive an even larger discount on 10 or more copies of the paperback:

Contact Dean Galiano, Director of Sales, Authentic Publishing North America (A Ministry of Biblica), 1-800-958-5383 x 1 or dean.galiano@biblica.com.